In another column may be found the advertisement of the Mercantile Companies on Moses of Messrs. Young, Janes & Co. of Montreal. This Firm is one of great respectability and to the great efforts will be to increase the trade of Maine by means of new facilities offered by the system of communication, furnished by the operations of the Grand Trunk Railway Company.

Bangor will, if the people here rightly act in reference to their own welfare, before many months be in communication with Canada by land and then they will be prepared fully to appreciate the benefits of sharing in the advantages of the western trade. And even now by the boat from Portland, western produce can be brought here over the St Lawrence route, as well and as cheap as by any other.

Mr. Butler the agent of this house has recently visited this city for the purpose of unfolding the advantages of this trade to our merchants.

Bangor Savings Bank.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Trustees of this institution, held at the office of the Bank, April 3d, it appeared by the Treasurer's report that the net amount of deposits on hand were $23,1..8,38; one hundred twenty-six depositors were found entitled to dividends of interest amounting to $307.46 cents, which was accordingly declared and is payable on Monday the 10th instant. The Trustees voted to pay depositors five per cent. per annum hereafter, instead of four per cent. as heretofore.

☞ Our correspondent "Gama," who has a short effusion in our paper yesterday, has set the young folks to guessing.

☞ On Monday last the Mayor nominated as Deputy Marshals, Ephraim H. Pratt and Hatwell Amsden, and the same were confirmed by the Board of Aldermen. The new Police entered upon their duties yesterday, and from the character of the men and from their general appearance we heard nothing in saying that they will discharge with fidility the duties of their office. The mark is certain that no efforts on their part will be wanting to prevent the violations of the law and to enforce its penalties. They are not men to be turned aside from their purpose, nor to neglect their duty in search of their game. The violators of law in our city, whether high or low, may rest well make up their minds at once that they cannot do so with impunity for the police will be found to have a hundred arms at their control and more than a hundred eyes to watch.

The refusal of the City Council to lift from offenders on whom the penalties of the law have most lengthily bear with some force, any portion of its weight, will have a favorable influence upon others. The law, therefore, has been so light in its penalties to be regarded, or the infliction of the penalties too uncertain to produce their full effect. A new view is now taken of the subject and the penalties are to be reached and enforced, so far, at least, as the city government is concerned. Offenders against the laws will find that the laws will be allowed to work out their own penalties, without obstruction or the interference of a remission of penalties. It is best for all that this be made known, and men if they will persist to violate the law, must be prepared to endure their penalties in their persons as well as purses.

MISSING VESSEL. The Gloucester News reports as missing, the fishing schooner Flight, of that port. She sailed on the 22d of February and has not since been heard from. It is feared she capsized in a violent gale of wind which occurred the day after she left port. The News says:

"The following are the names of the persons on board the Flight when she left port:

Silas H. Willis, master, of Southport, Me., about 26 years of age; Mark Webber, of York, Me., about 25 years; John Littlefield, of York, Me.; Charles Stearns, of Bingham, Mass.; Thomas Fredericksen, Frank McKinney, Thos. Fergerson, Richard McCrate—the place of residence of the four last were not known, but a part of them, we believe, were foreigners.

The Flight was a superior class vessel of about 80 tons, built at Essex one year since, and was valued, with her outfits, at $4500.—She belonged to Messrs L. W. Merchant and others, who had $3500 insurance on the vessel at the Gloucester Mutual Fishing Insurance Office. This is the first serious disaster to our fishing fleet which we have been called to record during the present season."

WEATHER AT THE SOUTH.—After a spell of delightful spring weather, on Saturday afternoon there was a change, and all day Sunday and Sunday evening it was unseasonably cold. On Monday morning we were visited with a heavy white frost, sufficient to kill tender vegetation, and to wither the leaves of our fig trees. There was also, as in supposed anticipations. We do not know the extent of the damage to corn land wheat. One thing, however, is certain, the frost was sufficiently heavy to seriously injure our fruit crop, and destroy early vegetation in the city. In the section of country above this it must have been more severely felt.—Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist, March 29th.

From the National Intelligencer.

Taxing the Commerce of Human Affections.

If there be one principle which, more than another, distinguishes the political economy of the United States from that of all other countries on the globe it is this; that the indispensable necessaries of human life are to be held safe and sacred from the grasping pinch of taxation. The foreign articles of food which no Administration in this country would ever dare tax, whatever might be the exigency to which we were reduced as a nation. Now, there is a precious article on which millions of poor men and women in the United States feed with an appetite as hungry as was ever satisfied with bread, It is that nameless invisible communion with the friends and homes of their youth in the Old World, which can only be sustained by cheap manuscript correspondence across the Atlantic.

We insist that this intercommunion of these sea-divided families is to them a necessity of the first urgency; and, in the name of religion, justice, and humanity we ask that this necessary may be held as safe and sacred from taxation as the bread which those poor men and women earn and eat by the sweat of the brow. And who that has a heart alive to the gushing tenderness of our social nature shall say that it is not a necessary? Not a necessary! Why there are hundreds of poor decrepid old mothers and mothers in Ireland and Germany who sometimes put themselves on a short allowance of bread for nearly a week in order to obtain from the Postman's hands, letters from children across the sea. Of all the prohibitory tariffs imposed upon human propensities that which now presses like a mountain of ice upon the commerce of human affections is the most cruel and wanton. It involves, what the most iron-handed fiscal restriction never did, a heavy tax upon the expert as well as import of affection and living remembrance. And are those words and thoughts, that make up the cheap currency of amity and friendly intercourse, such idle barter'ns, when friends and relatives are separated by the sea, that the transportation must be charged more per ounce, when written on paper, than the costliest jewels that ever shone in Oriental diadems? Let us contemplate for a moment taxes and goes to the present postal charges on the commerce of human affections, and see how they would seem to the eye and sound to the ear. For instance now, an excise duty on prayer! How profane and abhorant would such a proposition sound in our ears. A revenue tax, for the support of armies and navies, laid upon the voiceless upbreathings of a penitent heart to the God of all grace for mercy and salvation! How does that sound? An excise duty upon the silent thoughts that climb heavenward from the soul in its holiest hours of meditation? How do you like that? A postal tariff on the communing sympathies that seek to fellowship with God and sainted spirits in Heaven! Think of that. A transit charge on the flight of faith across the sea that divides the home and haven of its love from its inclement island of terrestrial existence?, What Government would even dare to name one of these profane projects, though it came within its capacity to enforce it? But next to such a tax as this would be cruelty and wrong is the present heavy tax imposed upon the intercourse of human hearts divided by the Atlantic; next to this is that crushing excise duty levied upon the widow's dying message to her son across the ocean. Next to this is the postal tariff on the transit of a wish, a word of loving remembrance, from brother to sister, from wife to husband, from friend to friend, between whom is a thousand bosoms leagues of sea.

WORDS VS. MEN.—Ledyard, the noted traveller, pays the following just compliment to the fair sex. He says:

"Women, in all countries, are civil, obliging, tender and humane; they are ever inclined to be gay, cheerful, timorous and prudent, and they do not hesitate, like men to perform a generous action, more ready, perhaps, to err than men, but in general more disinterested, and more virtuous, and performing more good action than men. In my ostensible wanderings in foreign climes, a hungry, thirsty, wet, cold, or sick, woman has ever been friendly to me, gave me kindly aid."

Brig Taken, a Charleston 31st ult, from Boston, reports that on March 25th, lat 34 .0, lon 72 40, fell in with schooner Statira, of Bangor, Boardman, from Providence for the Rappahannock river.

She having experienced very heavy weather for eight days previously, and being then in a sinking condition, took off Capt Boardman and crew, and carried them to Charleston.

FROM HAVANA—AN AMERICAN WAR FLEET BEFORE THE CITY.

NEW YORK, April 4.

Steamer Empire City, from Havana, arrived here this morning, having left Havana on the evening of the 29th ult., Special leave having been given to keep her port after sunset. The Empire city has 190 passengers. Trade dull. A great many American vessels had arrived recently, 33 were there on the 29th. The United States steamer Princeton arrived at Havana on the 28th.

Much damage had been done on the island by drought. Upwards of twenty sugar plantations, including several of the largest on the island, have been burnt in consequence of the dry cane igniting from sparks emitted from a locomotive, causing an immense destruction of property.

Left in port, sloop of war Albany, steamers Fulton and Princeton, and an U. S. surveying brig. All well. A large American frigate was outside, supposed to be the Columbus

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 4th.

The Senate after the reception of several petitions against the Nebraska bill, went into Executive session. The doors were temporarily opened to receive a message from the House, announcing the passage of the six steam frigate bill, which the Senate took up and passed forthwith.

In the House, the consideration of the bill to graduate and reduce the price of public lands was further postponed for one week.

Mr. Bennett introduced a bill to equalize the grants of public lands to the several States for certain purposes. He said that the committee on public lands were opposed to the bill, but were willing to take the sense of the House on the subject. The bill is the same as Mr. B. before reported, with an amendment.

NEW YORK, April 2.

By the arrival from Baracoa, at this port today, we learn the particulars of the loss of the Spanish war steamer Pizarro. It appears that she struck on a reef off Cape May, on the morning of the 12th, having on board over 300 troops from the garrison of Baracoa, and a crew of 160 men, all of whom were landed safely. Her guns and armament were all thrown overboard. The French war steamer Lilian and the Spanish war brig Pelayo are alongside trying to get her off, but it was thought she would become a total wreck.

King Oscar of Sweden, has ordered a gold medal to be struck in honor of Lieut. H. F. Maury, of the United States Navy. It is to be made of gold coin, at the Swedish mint. On one side of the medal will be a likeness of the king, and on the other a Latin inscription, with the name of the distinguished object of the comment. It will be equal in weight to fifty Swedish ducats.

The largest gentlemen of Covington, O., are on a strike. They recently met in solemn conclave, and appointed a committee to draft rules and regulations for an institution to be styled the "Covington Legal Association." They now demand five dollars for counsel, fifty dollars for divorce, and one hundred dollars for defence.

Mr Rufus Bennet recently left Alfred village in his sleigh, for home. His horse went directly home and passed round his house twice. His wife, hearing the noise went to the door, found her husband sitting in the sleigh—dead.

Important Bargains Offered.

LOTS of Land for Retail Dwelling Houses, with large Fruit and Vegetable Gardens, adjoining the city, mostly on the continuation of French St and Broadway, and a street laid out, 74 feet wide, in the range with Broadway, as it runs from State Street to the Park.) This street is laid out about 160 rods through my lands, extending over the south end of the Pleasant The lots lie north of and much higher than the Park, having a commanding view of the city and surrounding country.

Also, Land for Orcharding and Farming, on the new Stage Road to Corinna running by Coombs' Mills, situate beyond and near the first coves desirable class, having a view of some part of the city on its western side This land is considered as good on the farm on which I live, where I have raised over 40 bushel of wheat to the acre, (as may be seen on the books of the P. A Society,) and oats, hay and potatoes in that proportion. Some judgment may be formed also of my land for Fruit Trees on my lot near the city, by examining my bearing trees and our Fruit Nurseries.

My land East of the Mills has a considerable growth of wood on it and some timber for frames. We can go three furnaces by it, it being one of the best cost roads running out of Bangor.

Liberal terms will be given on it, and the size of the lots made to suit purchasers

N HARLOW

Bangor, March 25, 1854

If any person, not advanced in life, should approve of the probable results, of a few years good business in Bangor, if purchasing land from original, beginning at East Market Square, (the north-easter part of Lot No 68, Holland's Plan,) is referred to, where three leading and important streets, and the great and important northern and western country, lie near now to. Those streets will afford some of our best stands for business and valuable Front Establishments, without exception. It is only a strong wish to be relieved from part of my cares, and thus of closing business of this kind which could induce me to sell at this time by the quantity.

CLOTHE YOURSELVES!

Friends and patrons, I must ask your aid,
In seeing work to one who does it well,
Cost what it may, and all, and do not be afraid,
For depend upon it, no one shall excel.

In work, or cheapness, I will give satisfaction
To any one who is capable of judging,
I will ask all a job is worth, ever fraction,
He who will not give me that may be a budging.

But come and see me, call at Number Ten,
At East Market Square, in the Granite Block,
Up two flights of stairs, mind them,
Walk in—you needn't stop to knock

Here you'll find me at my occupation,
Either cutting, making, or repairing
Ole has for myself, or others in our nation,
Where there is at present so much rant and tearing

Repairing Clothes, at present is my hobby,
And, I stay my work with good silk and linen,
Come! yes, that bad your coat torn across your body,
I'll make it look as well as at beginning

Or at least I'll try, although I'm getting old,
Yet there is One who notices the sparrow,
That Power has led me on—but, hold!
My name is, what ever 'twas,

BROKEN Chop Glass, Earthen Ware, and Fancy Articles of every description repaired and mended strong it as strong as before, without injuring appearance.

This Cement which has been proved to be of great strength will be found particularly useful in every family, the simple manner of its application and its recommendation The adhesive property which it contains is so wonderful that many things will rather break in a fresh place than where they have been mended with it The variety of uses for which it may be used are so numerous that it would be difficult to recite them the success in mending Glass, China &c, is so extraordinary no ordinary degree of heat affecting it, and as the joints are scarcely perceptible after set of this kind may be made useful for years, when such ware would have been cast away

KENNEDY'S
Medical Discovery.

The Greatest of the Age!

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy for Diseases of the Blood of unequalled power. Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scurfiness, Ringworms and Scrofula disappear before it, like mist before the sun, and a common sound skin and healthy flesh are seen instead. Organic weakness, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Dizziness, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Paroxysms of Pain, Spasms and Sinking at the Stomach, Nervousness, Melancholy and Blues, are the general symptoms produced by a disordered digestion, and all will disappear as soon as the Discovery has had time to restore the blood to healthy action. Organic weakness, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Dizziness, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Paroxysms of Pain, Spasms and Sinking at the Stomach, Nervousness, Melancholy and Blues, are the general symptoms produced by a disordered digestion, and all will disappear as soon as the Discovery has had time to restore the blood to healthy action.

Two Bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Scrofula in its worst form, and the Discovery is warranted to cure all diseases of the Blood, from a common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.

One to three bottles will cure the worst case of Ringworm, Tetter or Salt Rheum on the human face, and one bottle will cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One bottle will cure the worst case of Blotches, Boils or Carbuncles.
